

Privacy Notice

TSA requires aircraft operators and aircraft operator-owned reservations outlets to make a privacy notice available to passengers prior to collecting information for the Secure Flight program under certain circumstances. Aircraft operators must provide the following privacy notice on its Website or self-service kiosk prior to collecting a passenger's passenger information.

Aircraft operators must also ensure that third-party Websites for reservations for their flights also provide the following privacy notice prior to collecting passenger information.

The Transportation Security Administration (TSA) requires you to provide your full name, date of birth, and gender for the purpose of watch list screening, under the authority of 49 U.S.C. section 114, the Intelligence Reform and Terrorism Prevention Act of 2004 and 49 C.F.R parts 1540 and 1560. You may also provide your Redress Number, if available. Failure to provide your full name, date of birth, and gender may result in denial of transport or denial of authority to enter the boarding area. TSA may share information you provide with law enforcement or intelligence agencies or others under its published system of records notice. For more on TSA privacy policies, or to review the system of records notice and the privacy impact assessment, please see the TSA Web site at www.tsa.gov.
